A Life in Dominica

“It's free and nature.
Be free, enjoy life,
and don't regret
when you die.”

Dominica: Nature. Freedom. Life. ♥

1. Can you introduce yourself (name, age, job, and where you're from in Dominica)?

My name is Anderson George, I'm 37 years Old, and I'm from Dominica.

2. How would you describe your childhood here in Dominica?

Very experienceful, very nice (river, bush garden, I go to school, I have fun, etc.)

3. What are your tasks in this job?

I'm a chef, and I take care of the garden.

4. What do you like most about living in Dominica?

It's free and natural (there is water in abundance, I can pick a coconut freely, no one to bother me).

5. What are the biggest challenges you have faced?

Recently, I had to pay 20,000 dollars to be free because the government had my passport.

6. What are your passions or hobbies outside of work?

I have another job (assistant job), I rest and spend time with my girlfriend.

7. Which persons are the most important to you?

My mother, my little brother and his girlfriend. The love I have for these people is way more important than money.

8. Is there a person or event that has had a strong impact on your life?

I would say my ex-girlfriend : People change, this breakup broke me and I had to rebuild myself.

9. What is your biggest dream or goal for the future?

To be free, have enough money to enjoy life and not regret when I die.

10. What advice would you give to young people in your country?

Believe in God, make your money, be free (enjoy life) and take responsibility for your own actions.
