

Day 7

During this penultimate day, we had breakfast all together around 9:30 a.m., we ate eggs with a specialty of Dominique called « Bakes ». It was really delicious !

Then, we had an appointment around 11 o'clock, to go on a river hike with Kenny. The hiking was a little complicated because the rocks slide a lot and there was current, but we laughed a lot during this hiking. After walking on land, in the river, and climbed some rock, we arrived at a very beautiful waterfall. There was a small pool in which almost everyone bathed. So, we bathed, we took pictures, and we went back to the accommodation.

After that, a part of the group stayed at the accommodation waiting for the meal, while another one going with Kenny to leave « Luna pool » (the river) to let themselves be carried by the current of the river, including about 1 hour. Then we all had lunch together, then we rested a little.

Normally in the afternoon, we were supposed to go visit the village of Grand Fond, but it was canceled. So the afternoon turned into a cooking workshop with Ashma, she showed us how to make « Bakes », a recipe that is close to the bokits's one. The atmosphere in the kitchen was very pleasant and friendly. We cooked while laughing and telling each other anecdotes, I really loved this afternoon.

To finish, the evening, we all ate together then Mrs. Finel and Mrs. Prigent revealed the results of our photo contest. Then we grilled chamallows at the corner of a campfire while listening to music. The evening ended with a tasting of snacks that we had bought, but that were not very good...
